

SECTION: COMMUNITY RELATIONS

TITLE: VOLUNTEERS, VOLUNTEER COACHES, AND CHAPERONES

1. Purpose	The Wilson Area School District encourages the involvement of volunteers in all facets of the school community. The District recognizes the benefit to students when volunteers give their time and skills in both the academic and extracurricular activities of the school. Volunteers act as classroom tutors, library aides, monitors, and coaches. It is also the responsibility of the District to assure a positive and safe environment for students.
2. Guidelines	Volunteers Volunteers at District or school sponsored activities during normal school hours, when there is contact with students, must obtain the appropriate clearances as required by law, including but not limited to Act 151 (Child Abuse), Act 34 (State Police Criminal), and Act 114 (FBI Criminal) clearances, and present them to the appropriate building principal. Per Act 153 of 2014, all school volunteers having direct contact with children must obtain new clearances every five years. All individuals, seeking to serve as a volunteer for the first time, must obtain all clearances. Active volunteers who have continuously resided in Pennsylvania for ten (10) years and affirms in writing (by completing the W.A.S.D. Volunteer Certification Form) that he or she has never been convicted of a disqualifying crime in Pennsylvania, or the corresponding under the laws of any other jurisdiction, they need only renew the Act 151-Child Abuse Clearance and the Act 34-State Police Criminal Clearance. The cost of obtaining these clearances must be initially borne by the volunteer. However, the District will reimburse those volunteers who are in the schools a minimum of six times. Building principals will submit reimbursements to the Business Office at mid-year and at year's end. Volunteer Coaches Adults who wish to volunteer their time and expertise to assist paid coaches in the District may make application to the High School Principal and/or Athletic Director. Such application must include the appropriate clearances as required by law, including but not limited to Act 151 (Child Abuse), Act 34 (State Police Criminal), and Act 114 (FBI Criminal) clearances. Per Act 153 of 2014, all school volunteers having direct contact with children must obtain new clearances every five years. All individuals, seeking to serve as a volunteer coach for the first time, must obtain all clearances. Active volunteer coaches who have continuously resided in Pennsylvania for ten (10) years and affirms in writing (by completing the W.A.S.D. Volunteer Certification Form) that he or she has never been convicted of a disqualifying crime in Pennsylvania, or the corresponding under the laws of any other jurisdiction, they need only renew the Act 151-Child Abuse Clearance and the Act 34-State Police Criminal Clearance.

The cost of the clearances is to be borne initially by the volunteer coach. The District will reimburse a volunteer coach at successful completion of their season.

The Board of School Directors will approve volunteer coaches who have administrative recommendation at a regular Board Meeting. Volunteer coaches, once appointed, serve at the will of the Head Coach, and may be released if their services are no longer needed.

Chaperones

Any adult who is not a District employee must obtain the appropriate clearances as require by law, including but not limited to Act 151 (Child Abuse), Act 34 (State Police Criminal), and Act 114 (FBI Criminal) clearances, before accompanying any student group on a field trip. The trip chaperones must submit their original clearances to the building principal, who will verify and approve submission. Per Act 153 of 2014, all school chaperones having direct contact with children must obtain new clearances every three years. All individuals, seeking to serve as a chaperone for the first time, must obtain all clearances.

The expense of obtaining these clearances will be borne by the individual, not by the District. There will be no reimbursement for clearances for trip chaperones.

For overnight accommodations, trip chaperones and volunteers will be assigned student groups according to gender – males will supervise male students, and females will supervise female students.

	This policy is effective upon date of adoption or revision. The Superintendent will develop procedures for notice and implementation of this policy.
